

Contractor Privacy Notice

HEMLOCK PROPERTIES is committed to protecting and processing your personal data in accordance with the General Data Protection Regulations and the Data Protection Act 2018 (the legislation). For the purpose of the legislation and your personal data, HEMLOCK PROPERTIES is the Data Controller. GARY HYNKAKI is the person responsible for data protection and can be contacted at: 3 High Street Thatcham Berkshire RG29 3UD

The General Data Protection Regulations are to safeguard your personally identifiable information or personal data. This privacy notice will be regularly reviewed and updated.

References to columns refer to our Data Management Matrix which defines...

- What information we collect
- Who collects it
- How it is collected
- Why it is collected (and what we do with it)
- Lawful basis for processing
- Who it will be shared with
- How is it stored
- What it will be deleted

Information held

The personal data we process may include the information in column A of the attached appendix and sensitive data including health if applicable. We may also hold copies of certificates or other evidence of membership of a professional body or trade organisation. Where the provision of data is a statutory, a contractual requirement or a requirement necessary to enter into a contract, a refusal to provide the data may mean that we are unable to engage with your service.

To ensure that we provide the best service possible we will need to collect and retain certain personal data. The data may be collected and processed by those listed in columns B and F. How we source the data is identified in column C. We may source data from third parties or via third parties e.g. trade bodies.

Lawful basis of processing

Your personal data will be used for the activities in column D. There are six lawful bases for processing your data including consent, a legitimate interest, contract fulfilment, a legal obligation and a vital interest. For each usage of the data the lawful basis of the processing of your data will be identified in column E. A legitimate interest is when we have a business or commercial reason to process your personal data which needs to be balanced with your interests i.e. what is right and best for you.

Where we state that we have a legitimate interest, the fact that we have a legitimate interest and what that legitimate interest is, will be stated in column E, e.g. to keep in touch with you when we need it to contact you, fulfilling our legal and contractual duties.
